Nearly fifty years she helped her husband on the farm.
Keeping house and hearth warm.
Fed three Tuckness children, husband and stock
At ninety-one has run out the clock.
It's time to rejoin your mom and dad.
And all the relates in Texas, we had.
Go join your sister, brother, and loved ones past
Rejoice and relax Von, for heaven is vast.
As Jesus's blood can cleanse our sin.
It's a promise that we can all be together again
Time has slipped by really, really fast.
And like water to wine, God saved the best for last.
Your children and their children will miss you so.
So, it's goodbye for now Grannie, it's time to go.
Your family was proud to call you mom.
We bid you God's speed.....
Lorene Lavon.
