*We've lost another,
But think of what she has gained.
Finally done with this old body –
worn out from all the years of working, doing, -
no thought of wearing it out,
Time to think – not of us,
but look at her, all she completed here.
Wanting to go – Ready to go.
Can't hang on any longer –
It's got to be great!
Give a deep sigh and give it up.
Join the others who've gone before.
They've been within, watching.
Their turn to be happy.*
