When I was just little
I had a great Dad
I know he was the best
a girl ever had.
He was gentle and kind he loved me, I know his voice and his actions always told me
He taught me to work to laugh and to play
he was always there
I liked it that way.
But when I was ten
My Dad went away
not just Fishing or hunting he went this time to stay.

I prayed to the Lord no faith did I lack
to raise him, like Lazarus, and just bring him back.
My prayers weren't granted my heart opened wide and spilled out all of the love I had inside.
Through tears and heart ache my grief filled my day
The joy and the laughter faded all away
The Lord took my Dad
I wondered why
with six kids and Mom expecting
why did he die?

God opened a window
so I could see beyond this hard life into eternity
My Dad is still here
he loves me so much I miss his fond smile and his gentle touch But God gave me wisdom and strength to see this life doesn't end
for you or for me I learned if I try with all my might to keep the commandments both day and night

We'll all be up there
A family forever
I've given it my all I'll never slack, never!
I've tried all my life
to be good and strong I know right is right and wrong is wrong
My Dad is always here to help me along we talk and we laugh and we sing a glad song You may think I suffered but by the time I was eleven I told people I was so lucky I had two fathers in heaven
