We can't know why the lily has so brief a time to bloom in the warmth of the sunlight's kiss upon its face.
Before it folds its fragrance in and bids the world good night to rest its beauty in a gentler place.
But we can know that nothing that is loved is ever lost and no one who has ever touched a heart can really pass away, because some beauty lingers on in each memory of which they've been a part.

—Ellen Brenneman

1919 – 2021

The best and most beautiful things in the world cannot be seen or touched. They must be felt with the heart. – Helen Keller
