Life Is Eternal

I am standing upon the seashore. A ship at my Side spreads her white sails to the morning
Breeze and starts for the blue ocean. She is an Object of beauty and strength and I stand and Watch her until at length she hangs like a speck
Of white cloud just where the sea and sky come
Down to mingle with each other. Then someone
At my side says "There! She's gone!" Gone
Where? Gone away from my sight that is all
She is just as large in mast and hull and spar as She was when she left my side and just as able to Bear her load of living freight to the place of Destination. Her dismissed size is in me, not in Her; and just at the moment when someone at my Side says. "There! She's gone," Are other eyes
Watching her coming and other voices ready to Take up the glad shout, "There! She comes!"
