One Two Three Four

I didn't want to believe it was true
 I didn't want to lose you
 Our time together was not enough
 But I knew I had to be tough
 When they said you didn't make it,
 I knew then I would have to fake it
 I would have to fake a smile, a laugh, maybe even a warming hug.
 But all I wanted to do is go home, cry,
 and never wake up.
 One, two, three, four,
 Maybe we could've had more.
 You left too soon and it happened all too fast,
 I still cannot believe you have passed.
 Now you are in heaven and touching the stars,
 One day we will meet again and never be apart.
